

Personnel Profile

Starting the group in 1985, founding member Greg Powers, currently sings tenor. He has been a mainstay on stage for more than two decades serving as the group's emcee, and bass guitarist. Both on and off stage he continues to lead the ministry efforts and is most respected by industry peers as a solid quartet manager. His devotion to the music ministry is the epitome of commitment in an ever changing society.

Eric Lipford from Alamo, TN joined the ministry in July 2005 where he remained for over a year until he left to pursue private studies at the University of Tennessee-Martin. He returned in March 2007 to perform double duties as the groups' lead vocalist and pianist. He brings dynamic delivery to the vocal arrangements as well as keyboard talents that are seldom paralleled by musicians today. His youthfulness is complemented by his down home sense of humor and humility.

Bass singer Aaron Watkins, from Metropolis, IL came aboard in August 2006. Although he is only in his twenties, he brings to the team many years of experience as a quartet singer. With his deep rich voice, he is destined to become a superman of bass singers within our industry today. His commitment to progress is matched only by his heartfelt determination to uplift Christ through music.

Most recently, Randy Patton of Kevil, KY joined the team to sing baritone. Randy's journey of service in ministry began in 1976 as drummer for a local quartet. He soon traded the drumsticks for a microphone where he quickly found his place as a true quartet man. Singing for more than twenty five years, his solid round voice now provides the basis for the unique harmonies of this group, where he continues to fulfill his calling to the ministry.
